Headline:
Becoming dry and frosty overnight, sunny spells on Monday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Wintry showers will mostly die out through the evening, with just the odd one continuing near the coast. With some long clear spells developing, a widespread frost will develop overnight. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Monday:
After a cold and frosty start, Monday should be mostly dry with some good sunny spells. However, the odd light shower can't be ruled out across the hills. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Tuesday generally dry and bright after early frost, but cloudier towards west with scattered showers possible. Staying fine and dry through Wednesday and Thursday, but still with some overnight frost.
